

OF
54-12

R. 60 W.

Figure 25.--Geology around southern end of East Bay, Stump Lake.

Explanation

-  Deposit of ice-contact stratified drift
-  End moraine
-  Lacustrine deposits and modified drift
-  Area in which sand and gravel is predominant surface material
-  Location of last rooted stump

-  Boulder accumulation
-  High 1453-foot strandline
-  Strandline ca. 1881-1883; approximate elevation, 1423 feet above sea level
-  Area of seeps and springs
-  Intermittent channeled spring

■
Farmhouse